PRESS RELEASE

Andrew Cussins launches sofasandstuff.com, the latest online sofa venture.

With over 750,000 sofas sold in the last 20 years, if there's one individual who can claim to have got the UK sitting comfortably, it's probably Andrew Cussins.

Just launched, sofasandstuff.com is his latest venture.

In the real world, they're based in beautiful Fittleworth, West Sussex, a cushions throw from the world famous Salvador Dali 'lips' sofa. But the big idea is to put those years of sofa expertise online, at www.sofasandstuff.com, and bring great design and a wonderful choice of fabrics within reach of anyone's pocket.

Quality sofas that cost thousands on the high street are affordable and available at sofasandstuff.com, in three clicks, with a no mistake guarantee. In the unlikely event someone's not comfortable with their sofa, for whatever reason, away it goes. And they get their money back.

sofasandstuff.com will deliver a new sofa, if necessary, through a third floor window. And they'll take away the old sofa too, and dispose of it responsibly. No more man and a van to the dump.

Tonya Kerins, of creative consultants Sutton Young, is the sofasandstuff.com press contact. Reach her on tonya@suttonyoung.com, or ring 020 7659 4978.
